

HELP FILL A CONTAINER AND CHANGE LIVES IN UGANDA

I am Someone is seeking donations of medical equipment. Our team is preparing a shipping container of medical and material aid that will serve some of the country's most under-resourced communities, where access to quality healthcare is often non-existent.

This shipment holds special meaning: Emmy, who grew up in our Children's Village in Uganda and was supported through school and university by I Am Someone, is now a qualified Doctor. He's about to open a free clinic in one of the country's poorest and most underserved areas.

But he urgently needs essential medical equipment to get his clinic running. In a region where maternal mortality rates remain among the highest in the world, and where families travel days for care, this clinic will be a lifeline for women, children, and the broader community.
